

HIGH PERFORMANCE SUSTAINABLE SCHOOLS

TUESDAY, MARCH 6, 2007 AGENDA

DAY ONE

7:30 am Continental Breakfast and Registration and exhibits

8:30 am Welcome

John Davies, Director, Division of Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency, Governor's Office of Energy Policy

8:40 am Characteristics and Benefits of High Performance Schools

Michael Hall, AIA, LEED AP, principal for Fanning/Howey Associates, Inc.

9:35 am How to Achieve Your High Performance Building

Martha Tarrant, AIA, President, Ross-Tarrant Architects, Inc., Past President AIA Kentucky

10:10 am Break

10:25 pm The Cost and Benefits of Building Green

Jon Braman, Capital E, Contributing Researcher, "Greening America's Schools Costs and Benefits"

11:40 am Lunch

Speaker: Dale Brown, Superintendent, Warren County Public Schools
Exhibits

12:55 pm Update on Kenton County High Performance Schools

Robert Lape, Architect, Director of Facilities, Kenton County School District

1:25 pm Tour Preparation Session – Warren County Design Team

Joseph Lyman, Executive Director, Insulating Concrete Form Association
Kenny Stanfield, AIA, Sherman Carter Barnhart
Mark Seibert, P.E, CMTA Engineering Consultants;
Charles Rector, Facilities Director, Warren County Public Schools
Robert Rogers, Building Inspector, Warren County Public Schools

1:55 pm Board Buses for School tour

Remember to bring your camera

2:25 pm High Performance School Tour: Alvaton Elementary School

4:10 pm Debriefing session in media room: Q & A about building

4:25 pm Time for photos and general touring

4:40 pm Depart School

HIGH PERFORMANCE SUSTAINABLE SCHOOLS

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 7, 2007 AGENDA

DAY TWO

7:15 am Continental Breakfast and Registration

8:00 am High Performance Renovation or Construction: Reaching for Energy Star

Ken Stanfield, AIA, Sherman Carter Barnhart

Mark Seibert, P.E., CMTA Engineering Consultants

Doug Hundley, P.E., CMTA Engineering Consultants

Ken Seibert, P.E., LEED AP, President CMTA Engineering Consultants

9:00 am High Performance Tools You Can Use

James Bush, Governor's Office of Energy Policy

9:15 am Update on Kentucky School Construction

Mark Ryles, Director of Facilities, Kentucky Department of Education

9:45 am Break

10:00 am High Performance Management for New and Existing Schools

Jay Wilson, Energy Manager, Warren County Public Schools

Chris Baker, Energy Manager, Kenton County School District

11:00 am KEEPS: Kentucky Energy Efficiency Program for Schools

Cam Metcalf, Executive Director, Kentucky Pollution Prevention Center

Brent Fryrear, KEEPS Coordinator, Kentucky Pollution Prevention Center

Jeff Kordenbrock, Director of Facilities, Thomas More College

Andrea Rock, Energy Manager, Bullitt County Public Schools

Noon High Performance Operations

Mike Mulheirn, Executive Dir., Facilities & Transportation, Jefferson Co. Public Schools

12:15 am Lunch and Exhibits

1:15 pm Bringing students and teachers into the building project

Karen Reagor, Coordinator, The Kentucky NEED Project

1:45 pm Green and Healthy Schools—Tools for existing schools

Jane Eller, Executive Director, Kentucky Environmental Education Council

2:00 pm Commissioning: One School's Experience

Rodney Pickering, Director of Building and Grounds, Meade County Schools

2:30pm Kentucky High Performance School Case Study

Susan Hill, LEED AP, President, Tate. Hill. Jacobs: Architects

3:00 pm Adjourn

3:00 pm Post workshop:

- Informal discussion with Mark Ryles

- Tour of Parker-Bennett-Curry Elementary